IN THE LOCK UP:—On Saturday afternoon two strangers in the city were caught asleep in a buggy, the horsesttached to which was deliberately hauling them through one of our streets at a speed to suit himself, and of which the buggy occupants were totally oblivious. They were arrested and found to be exceedingly drunk, upon which they were committed to the lock-up, and their steed consigned to the tender

We are informed that the Jury had a number of manues before them of parties who had refused to cancel revenue stamps according to law, viz.; by placing upon the stamp receipts or other instruments, the initials of the names of the party signing such receipts or other instruments; also the proper date of signing. The law prescribes that all stamps shall be thus signed so as to guard against a second or fraudulent use. We are informed that the proper revenue officer intends bringing suits against parties who wilfully neglect and refuse to cancel stamps as thus required by law. It may sometimes put parties to some inconvenience to thus comply, but they should know that a bill or receipt not so cancelled is valueless as a legal- and binding fustroment.

POLICE COURT.-In the Police Court rolics: COURT.—In the Police Court on Saturday, one of our merchants was arraigned for having choked severely a fellow-citizen. For this little diversion he was timed $20 and costs. This was paying pretty dearly for such alltile bit of anusement, as a man can choke himself to death for 25 cents—the price of a bed-coad.
